

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

TO FIND YOUR BABY THE BEST DAYCARE PROVIDER

Do you have availability for an infant beginning around ____?

How many children are you allowed to have? What ages?

How many children do you currently take care of?

Do you keep your place full, or do you leave some room to grow?

How long have you been in business?

Do you have pets? Are they allowed in the areas where the children are?

Do you ever drive the children anywhere? Where? How often?

Are there any field trips?

How often do the kids go outside?

Do they go for walks? To parks?

What is your outside space like? Do you have shade?

Do you let babies "cry it out" or do you rock them to sleep?

Do you have children of your own? What ages?

How do you balance your own children's activities with your business?

How often do you sweep/mop the hard floors?

How often do you vacuum?

What supplies do I need to provide?

What do you provide?

Do we pack snacks/lunch for the child or do you provide food?

What is the earliest children can be dropped off?

What is the latest they can be picked up?

What holidays are you closed on?

How do you work your sick/vacation time?

What is your policy for caring for sick kids?

How much do you charge? How do you accept payment?

Do we pay you for days that our child is not in daycare? (For example, the child is normally in daycare Monday through Friday, but misses a Friday to go on a family vacation.)